Frequently asked questions:

What is a pre-signing contract review?

A pre-signing contract review is a full written letter of advice that you will receive from our lawyers containing a summary of the key points to the contract highlighting any matters of concern.

Do I need a pre-signing contract review?

Although always highly recommended, you only need the contract review if you have not done your own research into the requirements of purchasing a property, have not read through the contract and section 32 in detail yourself and are not already 100% comfortable with the whole process of making an offer.

Pre-Signing Contract Review Services

Pre signing contract & section 32 review $273.90
(existing property) inc GST

How do I know if I need settlement searches?

You can check the section 32 from the vendor and check the issue date on the relevant certificates. If the issue date is less than 90 days from the intended settlement date, then you may not need to order the settlement searches. Note that the rates notice, and water bills are not the same as the Land information certificate and water information statement.

What do I need to do in the conveyance process?

We do everything in the conveyance process for you, you only need to make sure that you do what we ask on time, including completing and signing documents, arrange for inspections of the property and arrange funds for settlement. We will walk you through the process from beginning to end to give you an informed, comfortable and satisfactory digital conveyancing experience.

Are there other costs I should be aware of

There are costs charged by other parties for the conveyance which you will need to budget for as well. To assist you, we have provided the below information:

PEXA Fee	$137.39
Verification of Identity	From $16 Each
Transfer Duty	Subject to purchase price
Registration Fee	Subject to purchase price

How do I get started?

We can start work for you as soon as you provide us with a contract and section 32 with instructions on what you'd like us to do with it. You can also give us the real estate agent's details and we'll chase down the contract for you.
